

WHO SAID THAT?TM

For 2 to 6 adult
players or teams

Object:

Be the first player to get to the finish space.

Contents:

Game board, quote cards, timer, movers

Set Up:

Each player (or team) selects a mover and places it on the START space. Mix up the cards and place them, quote side down, near the game board. Decide whether you will be reading the top or bottom quotes on each card during the game.

Playing:

The player with the loudest voice goes first. Play moves to the left. On your turn the player to your left will take the top card from the deck and turn it over. She/he will read the category name to you (such as MOVIE) and then the corresponding quote while any other player turns the timer over.

If you are able to guess the quote correctly, move ahead two spaces on the game board.

If you cannot come up with an answer, ask for the hint! You need to do this before time runs out. If you needed the hint to get the right answer, move ahead only one space.

Note:

In categories like MOVIE or TV SHOWS, you should give the MOVIE or TV SHOW title--not the name of the character who said the quote (though, sometimes, they are the same!).

Winning :

The first player or team to reach the finish space (exact count is not necessary) wins.
