

TALKING Gooney Louie™ GAME

For 2 to 4 players
Ages 6 and up.

Pull The Gooeys Out Of Louie & Win!

Object:

Be the last player left after all the other players have picked the wrong gooey!

Contents:

Gooney Louie, gooey, brains, rubber band.

Set Up:

Carefully open the battery door and place 3 "AA" batteries inside the compartment in the direction shown there. Close the battery door.

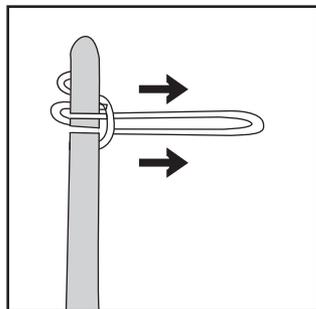

Please note:

- Never mix old and new batteries, or mix different types of batteries (alkaline, rechargeable, standard).
- We recommend using alkaline batteries for this game.
- Do not dispose of batteries in fire. Batteries might explode or leak.
- When the game will be out of use for a while, remove the batteries before storing.

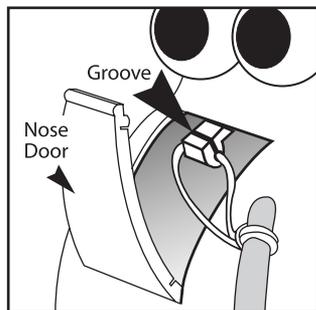

Take one of the longest gooey and knot the rubber band around the wide end of the gooey as shown in drawing 1. Open the nose door and attach the end of the rubber band (with gooey) to the "trigger" as shown. Place all the other gooeys inside the nose area as well. Replace the door.

Open the top of Louie's head and place his brains inside, brain side up. Hold them down as you close the top down. Press Louie's eyes in the down position, close to his head.

Put the switch on the bottom of Louie in the "ON" position.

Playing:

The youngest player starts the game by putting their fingers up Louie's nose and pulling out any one gooey. The player to the left now takes his/her turn and so on.

ACHOO!

As soon as one player picks the WRONG gooey, Louie will sneeze and his brains and eyes will pop out! The player who caused that to happen is out of the game. The remaining players reset the game, including putting back all the gooey that have been taken.

Start a new game until a player pulls the wrong gooey and now that player is out of the game. Keep playing games until there is just one player left...the winner!

Game Variation:

You may have noticed that there are three different sizes of gooey—small, medium and large! In this variation, the game still ends when one player causes Louie's brains to pop-out. But now, all players place their gooey in a line—end to end—and the player who has the longest line wins!
